

PisSING on THE MOON

a sonnet by Dany Burton

I have a ballon filled with piss and shit

I am going to hit you with the balon incredibly powerful and beautiful :)

the crabs are climbing out of the garden this time crab man's hand is big as fuck but also it is kinda wrinkly and shit because he is old but it doesnt matter because there are so many swords so many swords

What abouat if there is two jungles or something like that and one of them is the normal jungel and the special one or maybe they are the same yeah that' s it how about the other jungle is just how the jungle would be if it actually turned into how I would like to actuate yeah.

That explains every detail and then! The red creatures turn white!!!!!!!!!! woowweeee and the storm will be so big the dogs will come out of the water!!!!!!!!!!

that would be nice

LEAGUE OF SCUMBAGS AAAAA: the dogs are coming out of the water and the red people are turning white and the adventure of the jungle
